

Dear

Ho! Ho! Ho! I can see by my calendar that it's almost Christmas and it won't be long before Dasher and Dancer, Prancer and Vixen, Comet and Cupid, and Donder and Blitzen are taking me on my trip in my Magic Sleigh around the world, visiting all the houses of good little boys and girls everywhere.

And what do I see here? Why, I see your name on my Nice Boys and Girls list! That means that you've been good by behaving, doing your chores, and remembering to say Please and Thank-You all year long. Plus you are on my special list of children who have a parent in the Navy. I know it can be a tough job when you have a parent serving in the Navy and have to work a lot and not always be at home like other parents. I am very proud of your Dad for his work serving the United States of America Navy.

My elves are busy here at the toys and games for all the good world. Some are building toys, games, and puzzles together department of elves who toys and games for me to

And now, I'd better get back to the everything is getting done for Christmas visit the Reindeer Barn to make sure that they are all fed. I'd better look in on Rudolph, too, to make sure his big red nose is shiny and clean so that it will light our way on Christmas Eve.

Don't forget to leave some milk and cookies for me! I work so hard on Christmas Eve that I'm always hungry! And please leave some carrots for my reindeer---they work hard too!

Merry Christmas!
